

NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Nebraska Preservation Award

THE NEBRASKA PRESERVATION AWARD was created in 1988 to recognize significant achievements in historic preservation in Nebraska by an individual or organization. The award is given for one of two categories: "brick and mortar projects" or "individual or group achievements." The Director/CEO (state historic preservation officer), along with the State Historic Preservation Office staff and the State Historic Preservation Advisory Board, nominate/select the recipient. The award consists of a plaque and a lifetime membership in the Nebraska State Historical Society.
