

Brown Bag History Lecture

Take All to Nebraska— How They Came

Thursday, June 15
12 noon

Join genealogist and family historian Gail Shaffer Blankenau in an exploration of the peoples who undertook a great migration into the heart of America, from Nebraska’s opening of settlement in 1854 into the 20th century. These migration stories from a diverse group of families will bring new perspectives to our understanding of Nebraska life.

Nebraska History Museum 131 Centennial Mall North Lincoln, NE

Recording for broadcast on government access cable and
You Tube posting courtesy

402-471-4782

